

Crescent Yacht Club

Additional History Notes

Printed in the Watertown Daily Times June 26, 1908
(reprinted June 26, 2008)

"Yachtsmen, Yachtsmen's wives and fair friends to the number of 100 from Watertown went to Chaumont yesterday and participated in the Crescent Yacht Club's first evening of entertainment of the season. The new string orchestra of 11 pieces, most of the players member of the club, rendered a much enjoyed program. The guests danced on the verandas and in the clubhouse."

Printed in the Watertown Daily Times July 1, 1909
(reprinted July 1, 2009)

"In one of the most hotly contested races ever sailed on the east end of Lake Ontario, the Crescent of the Crescent Yacht Club, Watertown, today defeated the Kathleen of the Kingston Yacht Club by 26 seconds, and the Whirl of Toronto by 30 seconds, in the first of a series of three races for the George perpetual challenge cup."

News Clipping from 1957 Sailing Races

WINNING SAILORS—Trophies awarded to the winners in the various classes at the Crescent Yacht club were presented at the club Monday, following the annual Labor Day tea. From left to right are Wyatt Uhlein, jr., second in the dragon class; Jody Cosgrove, first in the pram class; Delos M. Cosgrove, co-skipper of the winning dragon; Commodore Carl F. Richter;

—Times Staff Photo
Toby Cosgrove, co-skipper of the winning dragon and first in the bantam class; Scott Montgomery, second in the pram class; Alec Wendall, winner of the plaque awarded to the outstanding boy or girl in the junior division, and Paul A. Severance, third in the bantam class.